No less than 200 University of Wisconsin maidens have gone in for crew, a sport once reserved for men alone. Heading a spring intramural program for women is Mike Murphy, varsity crew ceach. An inter-sorority race on May 19 will be the high point of the season. From the looks of the candidates above, coaching them shouldn't be such a hard job.

Hold Exercises at Jersey Tp.H.S.

Jerseyville, May 18.—The annual commencement exercises for the graduating class of the Jersey Township High school drew a capacity crowd Wednesday evening when the largest class to be graduated from the institution was awarded its diplomas.

The commencement address, "This

New Generation" was delivered by Dr. John L. Bracken, superintendent of the Clayton schools. Rev. Harold S. Parrill and Rev. W. L. Hanbaum assisted in the exercises, and musical numbers were furnished by members of the Benior class.

Two sets of honor students were selected this year. The honor roll proper is based on three points, scholastic standing, activities and school spirit, and in this group Orpha Holmes led the class. The second list represents scholastic standing only and in this group the highest record was attained by Geraldine Arter. The honor roll with points is as follows I--Orpha Holmes, 932,401314; 2-Geraldine Arter, 931 73686; 3—Paul Powel 929.4065; 4-Lolamae Whitley, 894, 99255; 5-Bernard Schroeder, 892.93; 6-Norman Tomlinson, 868.91435; 7-Esther Vahle, 885.2875, 879.85825; 9-Harold Parsell, 870.59; 19-Meredith Rhoades, 856.8; 11-Harold Breder 881 581: 12-Hudson LeFaivre, 850 8918 13-Lewis Varble, 847,30285; 14-Rosemary Bertman, 843.8401; 15—Nicholas Stahl, 838.67315; 16—Florence McElvain, 837.44545; 17-Wanda Gier, 835. 45355; 18—Helen Welsh, 831,5852.
The members of the faculty of the

The entertainment sponsored by the Morgan County Federated Clubs Thursday afternoon at the American Legion Home, was a very successful event, and a large sum was realized for the X-ray project. Over 100 quilts of interesting patterns, many with historical value, were on display and were much admired.

The musical program by Mrs. Helen Brown Read and Miss Mahala Mc-Ohee, delighted the audience with lovely numbers.

A playlet was cleverly given by the Orleans Woman's club, entitled "The Old Maids Tea Party." During the afternoon auction, contract, pinochle and five-hundred were played and lovely prizes were given, which had seen donated by Mrs. R. O. Wolston, Mrs. Dan T. Cloud, Mrs. G. B. Andre, Mrs. C. How we ask you to

WHY do you suppose Chevrolet keeps repeating, in all of its advertising, "Drive it only 5 miles"? Very frankly, here's the reason: Chevrolet engineers have tried out all the various makes of cars in today's low-price field. They have compared performance-on rough roads, in traffic, over hills, through sand and mud and water! And they have proved, to their complete satisfaction. the same things that hundreds of thousands of Chevrolet owners are proving in their daily driving: How much more smoothly a car travels with genuine, fully-enclosed Knee-Action. How much more comfortably it handles, with shock-proof steering. How much more restfully you ride, in a Fisher Body car. How much more safely you drive, with cable-controlled brakes.

And how much finer performance and better economy are secured from an overhead-valve Six! In other words, Chevrolet engineers know for sure that the Chevrolet ride simply can't be matched by any other in the low-price field. They know it -hundreds of thousands of owners know it - and now we want you to know it too, before you make your final choice of a low-priced car. That's why we urge you to "Drive it only 5 miles" - and that's why we promise, "you'll never be satisfied with any other low-priced car."

Young and beautiful Stanley Paige loses her fortune through market speculation but a harder blow comes when her fiance, the fascinating, irresponsible Drew Armitage, tells her it would be madness to mary on his income and leaves town. Penniless and broken-hearted. Stanley refuses to seek aid from her wealthy friends. Desiring to make her own way, Stanley drops out of her exclusive circle and rents a cheap furnished room. After a week of loneliness and had once been a fine old draw-stand tying to adapt herself to her poor surroundings, Stanley calls on Nigel Stern, one of her society friends, and asks his aid in securing a position. Nigel urges her to mary the handsome and wealthy young lawyer, Perry Deverest, who has loved her devotedly for years, but Stanley's heart is with Drew. Nigel suggests that she think it over, and then, if she still wants a position, he will try to place her. Mt. Emory Baptist Church-T. A. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Nigel suggests that she think it over, and then, if she still wants a position, he will try to place her. Stanley does not go back to Nigel, realizing it would mean meeting all her old friends. One day, when Stanley is more lonely than usual, she meets John Harmon Northrup, a struggling young author, and is touched by his sincerity.

In she story took shape and became real, his voice grew sure of itself, became firm and quietly compelling. He would stop now and then to look up and say, "Do you think she would have done that? Felt that way about it?" Stanley would nod affirmatively and he would go on with his touched by his sincerity.

"And that's as far as I've gone," he finished finally, to s s i ng the manuscript onto his desk, running his fingers through his rumpled brown hair. "What do you think won't you?" she asked him, and saw his eyes lose their unhappiness, kindle into eagerness.

"I haven't done much on it yet—fust a few chapters. I'd like to read them to you sometime, get your reactions. I'm so close to it that sometimes I wonder if I see the thing clearly; if, after all, it's not in the day of the sometimes I wonder if I see the thing clearly; if, after all, it's not in the day of the say of the finished finally, to s s i ng the manuscript onto his desk, running his fingers through his rumpled brown hair. Proving such a successful and delightful affair last year, it was decided to make the dance an annual event and have a second one. This year the attendance will be limited to seventy-five couples to assure comfort for the dancers

At eight o'clock the gay couples will arrive to enjoy four hours of dancing to the music of Herby Dale and his ten piece orchestra.

4. It is unfortunate that you were obliged to give up your special ungraded room in your Jefferson building. In a school system as large as yours there is a need for these ungraded rooms for pupils who do not make norma, progress in the regular rooms. When left in regular rooms, such pupils take the time of the teachers which is needed for the other boys and girls. I believe you should consider with Superintendent Stoops
